GENERAL NOTES

- Basic Use: Pick a name.
- For Variety: Mix-and-match first and last names. (For example, take “Shing Bao” and “Tong Jun”. You can name a character “Shing Jun” instead.)
- Disclaimer: Anywhere that I’ve butchered proper naming conventions, you can assume that it was a totally deliberate decision reflecting the fantastical nature of the setting. (Innocent whistling.)

SAN CITLAN

- Two Surnames: Those native to San Citlán may have two family surnames, one inherited from each of their parents. Select an additional surname to achieve this effect.

SHANKHABHUMI

- Shankhabhumi surnames are all based on their city of birth (either Sagopuri, Ashwadhatuj, or Tippuri). Descendants of Manivarsha can take the last name Bhatiyali.

TAYYIB

- The nisbah last names should be based on locations from the Tayyib Empire (and surrounding lands). I’ve seeded in a few of these, but we don’t know enough about the Empire to do it properly. So some of these surnames will make the knowledgeable either (a) believe the NPC must have traveled to the Empire from Earth or (b) roll their eyes at you.

UMIZU

- Names are given last-first.

YEONIDO

- Clan names are listed first.
- Given names often have two syllables, and it’s not unusual for siblings and cousins of the same generation to share one syllable of their name (e.g., Ji-Min and Ji-Yun).

YONGJING

- Family name is listed first.
- Status name is listed second. All of the listed names use birth order status names (so you don’t accidentally make someone a noble). Swap them out as needed.
 - Firstborn: Bo, Meng. Second-born: Xia, Zhong. Third-born: Shu. Fourth-born+: Ji.
 - Noble: Jun. Heir: Si. Scholar: Wen.
- Aspirational name listed third.
- A person’s personal name is status name + aspirational name.
- All Yongjing names are ungendered.
